All-In-One System Features

All of the features work seamlessly together in our all-in-one system to save you time and get results for your organization.

Meeting/Event Registration

Manage the complete event registration cycle in one place. With just a few clicks, set up event information to display on the website, set ticket prices, send email promotions, provide dial in details or print badges.

Website & Content Management

Master your new StarChapter website. Select options from our library of page sections to tailor the website to give your members everything they need.

Membership Management

Keep member and prospect data accurate at all times. StarChapter allows you to group records for better organization, segment for email campaigns, and restrict access for member-only content.

eCommerce

Grow your chapter's revenue by charging fees for virtual and in person events, selling sponsorships, or even promotional products to get your chapter's brand out in the industry community with t-shirts, hats, or coffee mugs.

Email Marketing

With everything in one place you can create targeted emails based on the information in the system to send the right message to the right member at the right time including: newsletters, event invitations/reminders, surveys, dues notices, or welcome messages.

Board & Management

The system serves as a collaboration hub to help board members perform their roles and work together seamlessly.

We have developed StarPay to give you the software you have come to depend on integrated with the payment processing you need. We believe software and payments are better together. That's why we have given you the options you have been looking for in StarPay: a better purchasing experience, easy to process refunds, improved reporting, simplified account reconciliation, single source support and more.

When the Board Changes, Your Chapter Stays Successful

Annual board transitions introduce significant risk to chapter success and efficiency. With StarChapter, board leaders don't have to worry about the next term. StarChapter's Support Advisors will assist with a seamless board transition, training new board members on features of the software, and helping them build upon the previous success of the chapter.

Included Support to Serve Your Organization

StarChapter Board Trainings

Access our on demand board training videos when your board transitions to help the new board get the most out of the software. We also offer time to train you for your specific chapter needs.

StarChannel Resource

StarChannel is within your StarChapter system and is a great resource for enhancement announcements, timely self-help materials, Chapter Insights and more.

Chapter Insights

Our blog, Chapter Insights, is full of interviews of how other volunteers are providing value to their members to give you some practical ideas to improve.

Great solution for volunteer organizations.

Our chapter is very pleased with the migration to StarChapter. Event management, communication, and members management features changed our chapter leadership engagement in website content and processing. Event management is a game changer for our chapter. It is clear StarChapter put a lot of thought into managing events from registration, order processing, reporting and payment processing.”

Frequently Asked Questions

What does “all-in-one” system mean?

StarChapter combines your event registration, email marketing, membership management, and website content management into one system. All of the areas work seamlessly together, so you don’t have to move data between systems. Your data is also populated throughout the system; saving you time by eliminating the need for redundant data entry. Data is current and accurate without extra effort to keep it all in sync.

What does my plan include?

Your selected plan includes use of the StarChapter software, your initial onboarding, ongoing support and training, software enhancements, security and reliability. We also offer assistance during board transitions to ensure continuity. StarChapter provides resources to help local leaders succeed by sharing chapter management best practices and insights.

Can I accept online payments?

Using StarPay with the StarChapter software allows you to seamlessly accept credit card payments for meeting registrations, member dues, and products. Your visitors can safely pay with credit cards on your StarChapter website. StarPay is PCI compliant and is regularly reviewed for compliance.

Can I use my own domain name?

Yes, you can use a domain of your choosing. Assistance is also available to make the transition as easy as possible.

Do you offer additional help?

Absolutely! StarChapter wants you to be successful! StarChapter plans include a well-crafted onboarding project where we help you start off on the right foot. Then, we offer ongoing support and training sessions for current and future board members as part of your service, making board transitioning easier for you. StarChapter is a self-service software that enables users to easily make changes and administer the software themselves.

StarChapter has been in my life for years. Overall I love StarChapter and its capabilities for the low price it is offered for. You can't beat it! StarChapter is very user friendly and allows many members of our association the ability to keep their team information up-to-date. The website updates do not need to be handled by a web designer and can easily be learned by anyone.”
